BRUSHES, BASKETS, BLACKING AND BOXES. BRUSHES .- The making of clothes, hair, black ng, scrubbing and dusting brushes is carried on y two or three firms in this city to the extent of about $15,000 per annum. The three establishments named below employ twenty hands, to whom are paid weekly wages amounting to about $200. The capital invested in the making of these rticles is about $5,000. We understand a new factory is about being established, with sufficient capacity and mechanical power to equal all the ouses now engaged in the business. Messrs Wunsch & Bro. are also preparing to enlarge their factory and extend their business.

The manufacturers of brushes are: Leonard, James-Twelfth, between Walnut and Madison.

and Clay. Wunsch & Bro .- Chestnut, between Hancock

It may not be invidious to mention the change which has taken place in the last few years in regard to the manufacture and trade in brushes, baskets, &c. Mr. J. B. Russell, 500 Main street, who does a large business in this trade, in orms us that the trade in these articles with Cininnati has been almost entirely arrested and conined to city manufactures. We do not assert that o trade is carried on in this line with Cincinnati, out mean to say that it is not done to the neglect of our own manufacturers, as was formerly the case. The same articles are now furnished by our manufacturers to city dealers cheaper than they can be obtained at Cincinnati. The supply is totally inadequate to the demand, and an impord article is sold inferior in point of style and finish to our own work. Many other manufacturers rould find profitable investment here for their apital in this branch of local manufacture. The mand is daily increasing. The work is an im portant element in domestic economy, an absolute ecessity, and we hope to see an increase in the capacity to furnish the articles corresponding to the growing demand. BLACKING .- Dealers in blacking will find a good article of city manufactured at the establish ments of Hawkins & Thornton, and J. B. Hughes Though the business is not very extensive, as branch of our local manufactures it is deserving the notice and consideration of the trade. Our merchants will find the article turned out by these gentlemen equal in every respect to the best manufactured in any other part of the Boxes.-A vast number of dry goods, soap candle, band, and other boxes are turned out by various houses in the city. The business will amount to fully $50,000 per year, and will give employment to twenty-five box makers, aside from the labor in sawing the lumber used in the work. There are two or three small manufac turers of band and fancy boxes, but Mr. Christopher Hibbert, Bullitt street is the principal one. among the principal manufacturers of soap, candle, and dry goods boxes, are, Alexander Ellis & Co .- Main, between First and

New Discoveries of Mammoth Caves !- A few weeks since we published a letter to the Courier, from Professor C. W. WRIGHT, of this city, giv ing the particulars of the discovery of another mmense Cave only a few miles from the Mamnoth Cave. That letter, we observe, has been xtensively copied by the press in all sections of he country, and the new discovery has attracted Glore, a boarder, of his pocket book, containing such interest and attention. On Friday last, we ublished a second letter from Professor Vright, detailing at length the discovery of another wonderful cave in Edmonson county, about five miles from Mammoth Cave. The description of the cave was full of interest, and will, no doubt, be generally read and copied. That section of Kentucky beats all creation for monstrous and magnificent holes in the ground.

We probably did the F. F. V. of the Cininnati Enquirer injustice in supposing and saving that he was the writer of the stupid and vindictive attacks upon the Courier which have recently appeared in the columns of that paper, as we see by dispatches to the Cincinnati papers that the distinguished individual is at present absent at Washington. Of course, then, the ass of the Enquirer is none other than Blossy, the beautiful creature, whose insignificance is his pro-

INAUGURATION BALL .- A grand ball will be given at the Capital Hotel, Frankfort, on Tuesday evening, the 30th inst., on the occasion of the inauguration of Gov. Magoffin. State of Feeling at Milan—The Condition of Ven-ice—Action of Fiedmont—Farini Dictator of Modena—Condition of the King of Prussia— The Regency to be Terminated.

[Special Dispatch to the Cincinnati Gazette.]

Baltimore, August 19, P. M.—The Milan cor-espondent of the New York Times writes: The Piedmontese who are here are incensed at The riedmontess was a few and the arbitrary acts of the Government, and many protests excluded from the journals of Milan find their way to those of Turin. But for the most their way to those of Turib. But for the most part the Lomberds take these things quietly. It is Italian Government, they say, and Venice is still under Austria. Let us keep quiet. Lut us help Central Italy to sustain its freedom. Tuscany, Bologna, Parma and Modena annexed to Piedont, give a population of 12,000,000, and hence an army of 200,000 could soon be placed in battle array. With these we can make head against Austria and free Venice. Until that is done we Austria and free Venice. Until that is done we prefer to keep peace, and not to grumble about internal reforms. When Italy is independent it will be time enough to agitate for greater liberty. And this is the tenor of discourse among all classes. I think they are right. The knot of the Italian question lies to-day in Central Italy. Difficulty exists in the question of Rome. I have justicated with a Vanction price assented from Vanctal Proceedings of the Control of the C parted with a Venetian priest escaped from Ve-rona. You would weep to hear his description of the state of the Venetian provinces. He, poor llow, could not restrain his tears, and i brown, could not restain its cars, and many y-stander listening wept with him. He says that after the battle of Solferino the absolute des-pair of the Austrians was indescribable—broken, said (laying his hand on the shoulder of one of them), would have sufficed to take the city and fortress. Five days and five nights they emlottress. Five days and five nights they employed in bringing in their wounded population. Meanwhile the people, elated, maddened by the news, and by the fact that forty menof-war were in the Adriatic, brought out their weapons from their hiding places. Those who weapons from their hiding places. Those who had none sharpened knives, and waited for the long expected signal to fling themselves on their oppressors. Twelve days passed. That signal came not; but instead, news of armistice. Still, such was truth, joy, hope, that no fear was entertained for the future. Five days more, and tidings of peace on the Mincio feil like a thunder-holt on the expecting network. bolt on the expecting patriots. Would to God I had died before I had seen the day, (sobbed the poor priest in his recital.) They were mad, mad. My poor people, they rushed about the streets, sobbing, weeping, brandishing their weapons, so mad, so frantic that the Austrians hid themselves. They feared the fury of the population in its first ebuiltion. Orders were were that the reverse ebullition. Orders were given that no provoca-tion should be offered. Placards in Verona, as in Padua, were withdrawn, and others, announcing that the news was false, and that its authors were arrested, were substituted. A calm succeeded the storm. All believed what they hoped; but in one night five hundred arrests were made—and now many more will follow? Emboldened by the accesses of the allies, whole municipalities, whole olleges had signed fusion with Piedmont. Every enetian worthy of name is compromised in one way or other.

Saturday, July 30.—Last evening we received lloa's order of the day to the Tuscan army, and also Fartni's proclamation to the Modenese. Both have greatly tended to re-assure the minds of the people here. Acting, all think most judiciously, Piedmont has recalled her Commissioners from Central Italy, in order that no color may be given to the calumnies invented by the French press, as to the pressure exercised over the people in the choice of their future governor. Farini was one of these commissioners, and with all the tact of an ex-republican and an ex-conspirator, he has used his powers well. No sooner had he reused his powers well. No sooner had he resigned as royal commissioner than Modenese created him citizen and named him Dictator, unanimously. His proclamation, which I shall not translate, as they are nearly all alike, concludes: "Fellow-citizens: I have faith in our destinies and in the justice of public opinion, and if the future holds for you ware difficult texts, the if the future holds for you some difficult tests, the right of being first in danger."

Farini's oldest son, one of the volunteers in the Sardinian army, was dangerously wounded at St. Martin's, and this fact by no means diminishes the enthusiasm of the Modenese for Farini.

The Tuscan army, halting at Modena on its way Tuscany, was welcomed with heartfelt joy. Two years past; meanwhile Mr. V then residing at Philadelphia, heard, through an intimate friend, of Miss L. and her waking dream, and was assured by this friend that he answered to the description given. When an opportunity occurred he visited the East quite unexpectedly, and arranged to be introduced to the lady under another name than his own—choosing that of a ingly at the gentleman, and after some common-place remaks inquired where his mother was. The peculiarity of the question caused him to in-cline his head forward for a moment, when Miss I., recognizing the position, instantly flushed up, and called him by his proper name. Three days subsequently, at a mutual friend's house, Mr. W. rose from the dinner table, and acting from an unaccountable and irresistible impulse, not at all premeditated, followed the lady into another room, and in less than three months from that time they were married, notwithstanding Miss L.'s often and emphatically repeated assertion that she never would marry a man younger than

Mr. David being the chief victims of its ravages. Mr. David Rhodes informs the editor of the Ironton Furnace, that he saw fourteen dead deer at one pond in Bollinger county, and numbers of others scattered through the woods, some dead and others dying from the effects of the malady. At the Falling Spring, in Carter county, thirty died in one night; and at Eleven Point, in Oregon county, a large number was found. The cattle have been attacked by the affection, also; but its effects on them have not been so terrible as on the deer, which are threatened with utter extermination. MONDAY, AUGUST 22, 1859. Reading Matter on Every Page.

Our Relations with the Louisville Democrat. A few days before the late election, the Hon. Beriah Magoffin made a speech at Georgetown, Ky. We received and published two letters concerning that speech, but not a word was said in them about Magoffin saying "that before he would go to Congress for protection, he would defend his rights at the point of the bayonet." Our letters were from correspondents who would have informed us of such an extraordinary position if it had really been taken by Magoffin, in the face of his published platform, from his own pen, in favor of protection in a peaceful and states-

The Louisville Democrat, which claims to have its "own correspondents," did not, however, to our knowledge, say one word about this Georgetown speech of Mr. Mogoffin until the late election was over. Certainly the Democrat did not say that Mr. Magoffin would appeal to the bayonet, and plunge the country in civil war, rather than ask Congress to do what he proclaimed from every stump in Kentucky to be the power and the duty of the National Legislature. When the election was over, however, the Democrat, which had given the world a specimen of its reliability by claiming the Hon. John C. Breckinridge, Beriah Magoffie, and others, as squatter sovereigns for the purpose of propping up and giving respectability to its own Douglas-mad position, had the audacity to print the following paragraph in relation to

Mr. Magoffin, our able and talented Governor elect, said that before he would go to Congress for protection he would defend his rights at the nt of the bayonet. Mr. Douglas has never

We replied that this paragraph was a slander upon Mr. Magoffin, and that it was not published before the election because it might have lost votes to Magoffin and subscribers to the Democrat. That is what we believed when we first saw the paragraph in question, and that is what we believe yet in spite of the low, dirty and unprovoked reply of the Democrat. And, now, what are our reasons for this belief? We will state some of them, and leave it to all candid men to determine whether or not this belief is well founded. Magoffin spoke at Georgetown on the 24th of July. Previous to that time, he had spoken all over the State, and had never manifested such a revolutionary spirit as to appeal to arms, and to inaugurate civil war, rather than ask Congress to. do what he claimed to be the power and duty of Congress. In addition to this fact, we had more than one letter from those who heard him speak at Georgetown, and not a word was said about his taking such a revolutionary position on the protection question. And further still, Mr. Magoffin had written out, with his own hand, and given to the press, the platform on which he stood and was elected, which is directly antagonistic to the revolutionary and civil war paragraph of the Democrat, and which is straightout in favor of peaceful and statesmanlike protection, in the fellowing words:

"That Congress has the power to protect while it cannot prohibit slavery in the Territories; that the Territorial Legislature as its agent, cannot exclude or abolish slavery, directly or indirectly, by unfriendly legislation; that such legislation is void, and would be declared unconstitutional by the Federal Courts; that it is the duty of the Territorial Legislature, to protect slave property and torial Legislature to protect slave property, and property of all kinds; that the rights of property of all kinds are under the protection of the gov-ernment, the Constitution and the laws; that our rights and remedies seem to be now complete it the Territories, and nothing has occurred to show heir inadequacy; that the Democratic party h brought us to this position of safety against all the efforts of the Opposition, entertaining different opinions on the subject, and forming combinations to destroy it; that the struggles and vic tories over other parties have clearly shown that ours is the only party capable of protecting our rights, or guarding them in the future; and if it should be necessary to pass laws to enforce the decrees of the judiciary, or even to call out troops, that it would be the duty of the govern-ment to do so."

With all this evidence before us, then, we could not believe that Magoffin had taken any such position at Georgetown. It was contrary to what he had said everywhere else, contrary to his written record, and contrary to all the information we had gotten from reliable sources concerning him. Capt. J. F. Smith. Seamer Simonds; Lehman & Co. Memphis, Tenn.: Dr. H. C. Catlest, R. S. Marr, Hickman, Ky.: Jacob Senseney, Wheeling, Va.; Wm. Hous thenderen. ten record, and contrary to all the information we voted for him with a diffe ent understanding, we enounced the paragraph in question as a slander upon our gallant Governor, whom we believe to be more of a statesman and patriot than to occupy such a revolting position. We might have added that it was an outrage even to couple him with Douglas as the Democrat did.

And now as to the second point. If the editor of the Democrat knew before the election that Magoffin said he would rather appeal to arms than ask Congress for protection, why did he not say so? He indorsed this revolutionary position, and "said the same thing in substance a thousand times." If the sentiment suited him--if he believed it was right-if he had said it himself a thousand times, why did be not let the voters of Kentucky know before they went to the polls that he and Magoflin agreed upon this one point, if upon no other? He had claimed Mr. Magoffin as a brother squatter sovereign until Magoffin repudiated this heresy upon every stump in the State. He had claimed him as a Douglasite, until Magoffin said there was about as much chance for the Little Giant at Charleston as there was for his name sake, the free nigger. He had told his readers that Magoffin was a non-interventionist, until that gentleman drew up and published his own platform, without mentioning the term non-intervention, but em ploying terms which shut cut all hopes of the Democrat's idea of non-intervention. Thus repudiated in every position assigned Magoffin, what a nice thing it would at last have been for the Douglas-mad editor to have said that Magoffin agreed with him in preferring an appeal to arms to quietly asking Congress to protect slavery in Territories!

When, therefore, the editor of the Democrat failed to make this charge of revolution and civil war upon Magoffin until the election was over, we naturally enough inferred that he was afraid to do so. Even if he did not care how many votes such an outrageous position might lose Ma goffin, he may not have felt like risking the few protection men in the proper sense who took his paper, whether they read it or not. We were riven to this inference from the fact that while we were discussing with the Democ. at, some time ago, the question of admitting Kansas into the Union as a slave State, under the Lecompton Constitution, we being for the new slave State and the Democrat against it, one of the editors of that strange paper told us that the Lecompton question was injuring his business, and requested us not to say anything more about the Democrat in that connection.

It is hardly necessary to add that we listened to this appeal of that editor of the Democrat, and let his paper pass for a long time on the Lecompon question. We went so far in a spirit of conciliation and pity as to offer no objections to the semi-Douglasism that got through our last State Convention, and even advocated the claims of a young man now attached to the Democrat for the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction in spite of the feeling all over the State, strong enough to crush any man in the Democrat office, or even of kin to any one there. We had promised, however, to help out what we considered a starving concern worthy of charity, and we kept our word.

When, however, the question of protection to the rights of slaveholders in the Territories came the rights of slaveholders in the Territories came up, and we found the Democrat, which had opposed the admission of Kansas as a slave State, still following Douglas in his hostility to the South, we again assailed that paper and showed up, as well between Second and Third, and its rotten Democracy and its sacrifice and showed up, as well between Second and Third, opposite Bank of Kentucly. of the true interests of the party and the South, and, indeed, the whole country, upon the unhallowand did by an overwhelming majority for Magnetine Abolitonism. The goffin and Boyd, who, as the Lexington Stateman. True, the Democrate claims this victory like a worthless puppy whining for the game his master has taken, but everyhogh understands.

We are satisfied with this result, and do not intend to suffer our enjoyment of it, with all our beart and soul, to be disturbed by the blackguard.

DAILY COURIER efforts of anything connected with the Louisville has chosen to take one of our paragraphs in high dudgeon, without first finding out whether it was designed to be personally offensive or not, and has come back at us in a style to which we are willing to award the meed of undisputed mastery. We have no language in kind to return, because our taste does not run in that line. We must suggest to the Democrat, however, that its terrible wrath at being suspected of the very common desire to retain the few subscribers it now has does not accord with its new dress, and other vaunted but unreal evidences of modern prosperity, nor justify the use of epithets worthy of a acter in the domain of Billingsgate, when advice we can give the very sensitive Douglaspelled to consider its authors as unworthy of no-

The Owensboro Democrat on Douglas. The Democrat, published at Owensboro, Kentucky, is down on Douglas like a thousand of bricks. The Little Giant is designated as a letter writer and a fit associate for Van Buren and oth ers long since kicked out of the Democratic ranks. Here is the style in which the Owensboro Democrat, which is but an echo of the voice of every single, sound, reliable and respectable Democratic paper in Kentucky, speaks of Douglas:

From the many letters written by Judge Doug-las, he appears to be very uneasy as to the plat-form that is to be framed in 1860 by the Democratform that is to be framed in 1800 by the Democratic party. The Judge would like, no doubt, to draft the resolutions for the Convention that will meet in Charleston in 1860. We have great confidence in the Judge as a jurist, but very little confidence in him as a Democrat; it is thought by some that if the Little Giant fails getting the proprietion from the Democratic party he will nomination from the Democratic party, he will run on his own hook as an independent candidate; but before entering on such a canvass, we would advise him to visit Kinderhook and get Mr. Van ren to write his obituary notice and epitaph. Benton is dead; and Mr. Van Buren is the only suitable man to write those mournful para raphs. Give us James Guthrie and a conserva tive Democrat from one of the Northern States, and Democracy will rally around them with victo ry perched on their banners.

ANOTHER ARRIVAL OF FINE DRY GOODS,

VERY IMPORTANT TO COUNTRY MERCHANTS .-W. W. Talbot, 69 Third street, between Main and Market, is now receiving his stock of Fancy House Furnishing Store Baskets, Notions, Toys, &c., and with his large stock of Domestic Willow Ware of his own superior make, is enabled to offer great inducements to cash buyers, saving them from twenty to thirty per cent. Give him a call.

MORE NEW DRY GOODS AT MARTIN & PEN TON'S, 96 FOURTH STREET, ONE DOOR FROM MAR-KET .- We again call the attention of early buyers of Dry Goods to the splendld assortment of Fancy and Staple Goods, opened within the past fish-woman, a wharf rat, or any disreputable char- few days at Martin & Penton's, consisting in part of elegant Robes, Silks ?(plain and Bayadere), responding in character to gentlemen. The best | Chints, Traveling Goods, Poplins, Jacquards, Stinenas, Orientals, Merinoes, Delaines, Linens, ites of the Democrat is to keep cool, take things Kid Gloves (Alexander's and Bajou's makes), easy, say but little, and, above all, say that little | Flannels, Cottons, Prints, Jaconets, Hoop Skirtsin such a way that decent people may not be com- in a word, a full line of everything for an outfit. Purchasers will find this to be one of our most reliable houses, and can place every confidence in them, as everything is represented to be as it is. Remember their number is 96 Fourth street

They are offering bargains in Summer Goods. We have now a complete stock of Fancy and Staple Dry Goods; adapted to the coming Fall and Winter trade, consisting in part of rich Volant Robes, 2 Volant Robes, double Jupe Robes, Bayadere Silks, plain Polt-de-Soie, evening Silks and Satins, (all colors,) Black Silks, Ispehane, Taffeta, and Rept, plain and Chena Poplains, Traveling Dress Goods, (all styles and colors,) Cambrics, Jaconets, Mull Swiss and Nansok Muslins, White and Colored Tarltons, Kid Gloves, Hosiery, Hoop Skirts, Prints and Chintz, Irish Linen, Table Damask, Sheeting, &c. Also, some of those Paris Pointed Organdies, on hand; all of which will be sold very low by G. B. TABB, corner of Fourth and Market streets.

FALL DRY GOODS .- Guthrie & Brothers are reeiving their Fall purchase, which is made up of superior Goods of every grade. Their stock hrough the season will be heavy and select, including the best Goods afforded by the American market. In Dress Goods, especially, their line of Silks, Delaines, Merinos, &c., will be unexcelled. Fourth, between Market and Jefferson streets. A WORD TO THE WISE .- The people are aware that D. O'Hare, No. 427 Main street, is the oldest, largest, and most experienced manufacturer of trunks and similar articles in the city. They should avail themselves of the rare opportunities afforded by Mr. O'Hare. To the country and city merchants he offers peculiar advantages in his wholesale department, while in the retail line he cannot be equalled. Whoever wants to travel whether with a small carpet bag or a mammoth trunk, need go no further than the great Western factory of Mr. O'Hare. His manufactory is a credit to Louisville, and should meet with extensive patronage. As a matter of home pride, and to subserve economy, purchasers will consult their est interest in purchasing of Mr. D. O'Hare. Remember, that the United States Prize Medal was awarded to D. O'Hare for the best trunks made. aug13 d&w1y

LARGE SHIPMENTS .- It is astonishing to see the arge amount of McLean's STRENGTHENING COR-DIAL that is shipped off daily to different parts of the country. It is scarcely three months since this article was first introduced, and now, judging from its rapid sale, it is known and appro-ted all over the Western country. Every druggist, dry goods or grocery merchant visiting our city should be sure to obtain a sup-ply of this Cordial. It is just the thing required to strengthen and invigorate the weak and de-politated.—St. Louis Democrat.

aug15 deod12&w2-34 CONSUMPTION OF THE BLOOD .- In this common and dangerous disease, the blood loses its vitality. ceases to nourish the system, and to stimulate the organs to healthy activity. The Protoxide of Iron, in the PERUVIAN SYRUP supplies the deficient element, and the blood receives new life, with a consequent restoration of the bodily vigor, the return of appetite, the hue of health. SCOTTISH PRESBYTERIAN. PROSPECTUS.

The undersigned, in consultation with Brethren, prooses to publish a Religious Monthly, in form of a neat-y executed psuphlet, of not less than 32 octavo pages, under the title of the "SCOTTISH PRESBYTERIAN." ution in September next. The price, per volume of welve numbers, will be One Dollar, in advance, pay ble in the paper of any specie-paying bank. All these to whose hands this circular may come are respect ally solicited to aid in procuring and forwarding su fully solicited to aid in procuring and forwarding subscriptions.

The Scottish Preserverian, while recognizing a supreme allegiance to Truth and Righteousness in general, and striving, as far as may be, to cultivate fraternal relations with the whole household of Faith, will be conducted with special reference to the interests and responsibilities of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church.

The contributors who will furnish matter for the pages of this publication are, for the most part, laborious preachers of the Gospel. Of them it may justly be espected that their productions will savor of the work in which they are habitually and earnestly engaged, and in a higher sense than did the raiment of the Patriarch, smell of a field which the Lord hath blessed.

While there will be a substantial agreement in sentiment among those who co-operate in this enterprise, each contributor will be left free to impress his own individuality on his work. Their various articles thus prepared will go forth unsignatured, to commend themselves to acceptance or the centrary simply on the ground of their own merite. Where it is due to a thorough discussion of the matter in hand, we shall not hesitate to welcome a series of artisles on a single topic; nor, with our regular contributors, shall we lose sight of the importance of assigning the right work to the right man. In addition to contributors from the roll of our own body, in whose ability to combine rational entertainment with sound instruction we have an abiding confidence, we have also the pleasure of an abiding confidence, we have also the pleasure of an abiding confidence, we have also the pleasure of an ouncing a series of articles on "The Church, her Proper Functions and her Just Relations" from the vigorous and polished pen of the Rev. Stuart Robinson, of this city. We also anticipate occasional contributions of much interest from Ministerial Brethren and others, whose engagements do not permit them to become regular contributors. In a word, our best efforts will be given to produce a genuine Working Paper, looking in everything to practical results, and, as far as abidity shall serve, fearlessly weighing all men, measures, and things, severely but fairly, in the light of the Church's good.

Such is our plan, and such are the means through essea. While there will be a substantial agreement in senti

JOHN BULL'S

COMPOUND PECTORAL OF

CHERRY. WLD TABLE seal of public approbation has been so unmistakably fixed upon this medicine that the proprietor feels it to be his duty to call the attention of all those persons to it who are suffering from, or threatened with, affections of the lungs or throat. Its basis is the active principle of the Wild Cherry Bark, but it contains also, in proper proportions, other of the most efficient pectorals of the MATERIA MEDICA. Its component parts and proportions are well known to physicians everywhere, as the proprietor makes no secret of them, and they have met the universal approbation of the faculty, who, as a general thing, prefer using this preparation to any prescription which they can have prepared by a druggist.

It can be procured from druggis's and country stores everywhere. erywhere. Dr. JOHN BULL'S Principal Office, Louisville, Ky.

LYON'S MAGNETIC POWDERS.

Will destroy Garden Insects, Cockroaches, Bed Bugs, Floas Anis Moths, and all pests of the vermin kind.

The importance of a reliable article of this kind is instinable. In warm weather all nature teems with these annoying foes. This powder is the only article ever discovered which will exterminate them. A company of botanists, from the Horticultural Society of Paris, white smidst the ferns of Asia, observed that all insects lighting upon a certain kind of plant very soon dropped dead. This fact was made use of to guard their night camps from these intruders. Quantities of the plant were brought home by Mr. E. Lyon, and found a positive insect destroyer in every experiment. It is simply a powsect destroyer in every experiment. It is simply a powet destroyer in every experiment. It is simply a powered leaf, chemically prepared to resist the effect of age de climate. Medals and Letters Patent have been obined from the Governments of England, France, Gerany, and Russis, from the World's Fair, and numeris medical and horticultural colleges, and societies. Letters from the President of the United States.

THE RIVER is rising again, the effects of the Pittsburg rise, with 3 feet 10 inches water in the cansi, last evening, by the mark. During the day, Saturday, it was about at a stand, but since then it rose 4 inches at the head of the falls, up to last evening, which is equal to 11 inches at Portland, the foot of the falls. The weather has continued dry, or rather warm, until yesterday morning en it turned quite cool.

The river at Cincinnati, up to Saturday evening at dusk, had risen altogether two feet, and was n slowly swelling. That will, possibly, make arther rise of five or six inches at the head of the

The present rise can be of but slight help to navigation, as it is of short duration, will soon be over, and the river fall faster than it has risen. Along the Lower Ohio, the last arrivals report ? eet water on the shoalest bars, and the river fall-The Lower Mississippi was also steadily falling at last accounts, and from Cairo to St. Louis but 6½ feet was reported on the bars Saturday, and falling. All the upper rivers were falling fast, and the bars quite troublesome. But 3½ feet water was found on the Upper Mississippi, and 28 inches only in the Illinios. At Wheeling, Friday night, the Ohio was at a stand, but at Marietta it was falling, with six feet water in the channel. At Pomeroy there had been heavy rains, and the river falling, with eight feet water in the channel.

The R. F. [Sass and Jesse K. Bell left New Orleans on the 18th for the Ohio. The Crescent of

For New Orleans.—The staunch and commodious side-wheel packet, E. A. Ogden, starts direct to Cairo and New Orleans to morrow, Tuesday, at 10 o'clock, from Portland. She is in charge of Capt. Erwin, who will give through receipis for freight or passengers to New Orleans, on the new Uncle Sam, at Cairo. The fine light draught packet Chancellor, Capt. Mellow, having been thoroughly refitted and refurnished, resumes her place in the New Orleans trade Wednesday. She starts from Portand, having ample room on her decks for stock The Charm, Saturday, extended her trip to the Kentucky river, having a good company on board, who enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent, meeting with good fare and accommodations. The Charm is an admirable little boat for pleasure parties, pic-nics, or fishing excursions. A Desperado-Row on the W. S. Nelson.— Saturday evening late, the mate of the W. S. Nel-son, at Portland, while drank, attacked several persons on the boat with a knife, maining one, and otherwise injuring others, and was finally shot by officer Crofut. The particulars of the outrage will be found in another column. We also learn that there was a general row among the officers, passengers, and "shore men," on the W. S. Nelson, Saturday night, and before she got off, several attachments for sundry bills were issued on the Captain. The boat is what is designated an "controller". were issued on the Captain. The boat is what is designated an "outsider," and was advertised for New Orleans, taking freights at unusual low rates, thereby creating much ill feeling against her among other boatmen.

all Billious Complaints.

It is a well known fact that the different fevers and billious complaints are caused by the poisonous miasma and exhalations from the surface of the earth, which are taken into the system by respiration. To neutralise this subtlepoison and counteract its effect upon the system, is therefore what we have to aim at, and with this view the "French Tropical Fever and Ague Mixture" has been prepared.

The high reputation which this medicine has gained within so short a time in the South and West where it has been introduced, is a sufficient proof for its superiority above all other compounds of the same kind.

As an anticlote to malaria, this medicine siands unrivalled; and as it is purely vegetable, it can be safely given to children and delicate patients, not only in case of fever, but in all eases where a good tonic is required.

The French Tropical Fever and Ague Mixture is prepared by [B. LaPLACE, Chemist and Druggist, New Orleans, and sold by all respectable druggists throughout this city.
